

Pray for the End of Human Trafficking

“The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners...”

Isaiah 61:1

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY

8 For God to keep those who have been displaced by natural disasters from being deceived by traffickers who prey on others' suffering	9 For the Holy Spirit to flood into the darkest strongholds of slavery and restore crushed dignity, lifting people out of despair into joy and hope	10 For God to answer the prayers of His people and free slaves from their captors so that we can hear and rejoice in the God we serve (Ps. 118:15)	11 For families trapped in slavery in India, China, and Pakistan in brick kilns to be found, set free, and come to hear and believe the Gospel	12 For the reality of modern day slavery to be unveiled on secular media, sparking a passion in viewers to fight for the end of human trafficking	13 For freedom for the thousands of Eritreans in the horn of Africa conscripted in forced military service and bonded labor under brutal conditions	14 For Christians to give faithfully and generously to organizations rescuing and restoring victims of human trafficking
15 That the Holy Spirit would make your heart acutely sensible of the pain of those in slavery so that you pray daily and give often for them	16 That international awareness of the six prison camps in North Korea would increase and produce forceful, unhesitating action	17 For us to trust that God will right every wrong, wipe away every tear, and bring final justice (Rom.12:19) (Ps. 140:12) (Rev. 21:4) (2 Pet. 3:9)	18 That Christ would greatly empower the lawyers, investigators, social workers, and leadership of the International Justice Mission (Phil. 4:13)	19 That men and women of strong character who will not coexist with any trafficking would be elected or appointed into high positions in their nations	20 For God to protect children from being forced into temple prostitution or Buddhist monastic service, especially in Southern Asia	21 That God would gently but firmly take our eyes off of ourselves and give us an empathy for the suffering of others
22 For sexual predators in your city who are hidden in plain sight to be restrained from ever harming another person as long as they live	23 That you would "mourn with those who mourn" (Rom. 12:15) as if you yourself were suffering (Heb. 13:3) so that you are spurred to action	24 For exploited women who have become pregnant to choose life for their baby and be surrounded with support, protection, and provision	25 For justice in the courts--that judges would have the wisdom of Solomon in justly and quickly sentencing traffickers (Eccl. 8:11)	26 For God to greatly bless Uncharted International and give them divine provision and connections that will open new doors for their work	27 For God to equip the Agape International Mission to expand their capacity in Cambodia and around the world	28 For the Holy Spirit to lead the International Justice Mission to people who need rescue and give them safe and successful trafficking busts
